) The following manhunting operations took place in Calendar Year 2010:

edit] (U) November

Contents

edit] (U) United States, Australia, Great Britain, Germany, Iceland

) The United States on 10 August urged other nations with forces in Afghanistan, including Australia, United Kingdom, and Germany, to consider filing criminal charges against Julian Assange, founder of the rogue Wikileaks Internet website and responsible for the unauthorized publication of over 70,000 classified documents covering the war in Afghanistan. The documents may have been provided to Wikileaks by Army Private First Class Bradley Manning. This appeal exemplifies the start of an international effort to focus the legal element of national power upon non-state actor Assange, and the human network that supports Wikileaks. ^[16]

[edit] (TS//SI//REL) Malicious foreign actor == disseminator of US data?

Can we treat a foreign server who stores, or potentially disseminates leaked or stolen US data on its server as a 'malicious foreign actor' for the purpose of targeting with no defeats? Examples: WikiLeaks, piratebay.org, etc.

OC/OGC RESPONSE: Let us get back to you. (Source #001)

[edit] (TS//SI//REL) Unknowingly targeting a US person

crewed up...the selector had a strong indication of being foreign, but it turned out to be US...now what?

OC/OGC RESPONSE: With all querying, if you discover it actually is US, then it must be submitted and in the OGC quarterly report...'but it's nothing to worry about'. (Source #001)
